

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF WEST VIRGINIA
AT CHARLESTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CRIMINAL ACTION NO. 2:13-00273-02

DEANDRE COLEMAN

SUPERVISED RELEASE REVOCATION AND JUDGMENT ORDER
MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

On October 18, 2016, the United States of America appeared by John J. Frail, Assistant United States Attorney, and the defendant, Deandre Coleman, appeared in person and by his counsel, John R. McGhee, Jr., for a hearing on the petition on supervised release submitted by Senior United States Probation Officer Patrick M. Fidler. The defendant commenced a three-year term of supervised release in this action on May 7, 2015, as more fully set forth in the Probation Revocation and Judgment Order entered by the court on March 10, 2015.

The court heard the admissions of the defendant and the representations and argument of counsel.

For reasons noted on the record of this proceeding, which are ORDERED incorporated herein by reference, the court found that the defendant has violated the conditions of supervised release in the following respect: the defendant committed the state offense of unlawful wounding under West Virginia state statute on or about July 11, 2016, as evidenced by his agreement on the record of the hearing that the government possesses sufficient proof to prove the offense by a preponderance of the evidence, and as set forth in the petition on supervised release.

And the court finding, as more fully set forth on the record of the hearing, that the violation warrants revocation of supervised release and, further, that it would unduly depreciate the seriousness of the violation if supervised release were not revoked, it is ORDERED that the supervised release previously imposed upon the defendant in this action be, and it hereby is, revoked.

And the court having complied with the requirements of Rule 32(a)(1)(B) and (C) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and finding, after considering the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e), that the defendant should be confined to the extent set forth below, it is accordingly ORDERED that the defendant be, and he hereby is, committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons for imprisonment for a period of TWELVE MONTHS AND ONE DAY, to be followed by a term of nineteen (19) months of supervised release upon the standard conditions of supervised release now in effect in this district by order entered June 22, 2007, and the further condition that the defendant not commit another federal, state or local crime.

The defendant was remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

The Clerk is directed to forward copies of this written opinion and order to the defendant, all counsel of record, the United States Probation Department, and the United States Marshal.

DATED: October 20, 2016

John T. Copenhaver, Jr.
United States District Judge
